NBS REAL ESTATE CAPITAL ACQUIRES $6.15 MILLION B-NOTE

PORTLAND, OR.— October 29, 2008 — NBS Real Estate Capital, LLC announced the purchase of a $6,150,000 B-note from a national conduit lender. The entire first mortgage, comprised of a senior A-note and a junior B-note, is secured by High Pointe Tower, a 120,000 square foot Class A office building located in Greenwood Village, Colorado. The B-note purchase represents the 36th investment completed by NBS Real Estate Capital and the seventh investment made thus far in 2008.

On behalf of the Morrison Street series of Funds, NBS Real Estate Capital has the flexibility to invest in either value-added equity or secondary financings including mezzanine debt, B notes, bridge loans and preferred equity. NBS Real Estate Capital originates new loans in addition to acquiring individual loans and portfolios in the secondary market. These varied investments demonstrate the company's flexibility in responding to market conditions. Since the onset of the credit crunch, NBS Real Estate Capital has been especially active in underwriting and closing small balance mezzanine loans and preferred equity transactions.
