Liza Wheeler comes to NBS Real Estate Capital with a background in real estate marketing, advertising and business administration. She utilizes these skills as a versatile project manager who is responsible for providing overall support to the NBS Real Estate Capital team.

Previously, Ms. Wheeler was an escrow assistant at Fidelity National Title. There, she served as liaison between diverse stakeholders in a high volume, transaction-oriented environment. She collected, condensed and communicated information between all involved parties under tight company deadlines. Ms. Wheeler has also acted in a marketing capacity for Toklat Originals, driving a national campaign for the product line with clinics, demonstrations, seminars and biannual catalog publishing management.

Ms. Wheeler earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Portland State University with an emphasis in Marketing and Advertising Management. Her goal-oriented approach and clear communication make her a valuable asset to the NBS Real Estate Capital team.
